

Bryaunna Kostelnik

Faculty// The School Little + Young Artists

Contemporary + Ballet

Open Space Company Artist

An Oregon native, Bryaunna Kostelnik began studying dance, developing choreography, and observing pedagogy at a young age. In the coming years, they continued to train and perform with Quickstyle Studios in Oslo, Norway, b12 in Berlin, Germany, and Deltebre Dansa outside Barcelona, Spain. Post-graduation from Oregon State University in June of 2021, Kostelnik has continued to work professionally throughout the Pacific Northwest with OPENSOURCE, push/FOLD, ProLAB Dance, and Southern Oregon Dance Collective, performing work both nationally and globally by Franco Nieto, Victor Quijada (RUBBERBANDance), Noelle Kayser, Samuel Hobbs, Jaci Royal, Wes Veldink, Greg Russell, and Tessandra Chavez as well as collaborated in choreographic work by Akram Khan, Leo Leorus, Anton Lachky (Puzzlework), Jasmin Vardimon, and Elijah Labay. Currently, Kostelnik continues their work with OPENSOURCE as company artist for their 2023-2024 season.