

Santiago Villarreal

Santiago Villarreal, born in Monterrey, Mexico, started dancing at age of 16 and earned his BFA from Chapman University in 2019. After graduating Santiago moved to Los Angeles, where he worked as a freelancer and had the opportunity to work extensively in the commercial and concert dance world. He has had the pleasure to work with distinguished choreographers and dance companies such as NW Dance Project, Ate9, The TL Collective, Ihsan Rustem, Yin Yue and Jacob Jonas to name a few. He has also worked with commercial artists such as Kareem Lomax, MILCK, JORDY and has been featured in national commercials. Santiago is currently a dancer for Kali Uchis and has been part of her Coachella 2023 set and her Latin America tour and Red Moon In Venus headlining US tour. Santiago continues to be curious for new experiences and movement languages and is focused on continuing growing as a dancer and choreographer in the concert and commercial world.
